

HOPE
is all you need

Black history month

Nelson Mandela

First black president of South Africa.
Fought for equality between races.

Martin Luther King Jr

Led protests to help achieve equal rights for African Americans. Famous for the 'I have a dream' speech.

Rosa Parks

Refused to give up her bus seat which led to segregation rules changing on buses.

Mary Seacole

Nursed soldiers back to health during the Crimean war. Also known as 'Mother Seacole'.

Barack Obama

First African American president of the USA. He continues to promote equality.

Fredrick Douglass

Formerly enslaved, he led the abolitionist movement that sought to end the practice of slavery.